

Piecing Together History – A Look At the History of the Lake and Strait Districts of Dorchester Over 400 Years, by General Jim Adkins, 6 April 2016

Jim Adkins is a native of Dorchester County with a love of history. His European ancestors came to the southern part of Dorchester County in the 1600's. Before that, his Native American ancestors lived along the shores of the Chesapeake Bay. Jim shared local "Down Below" history punctuated with stories of his own ancestors.
