

DVD Number 48

Civil War Cannoneering, Gerry Horney, 11 April 2005

Gerry Horney, a skilled metal worker, has built from scratch several cannons such as were used in colonial days. He talks about how these cannons were made and used. He and Bill Smith, another skilled metal worker who works with him, have been invited to fire their cannons at many patriotic celebrations in the Eastern Shore area.

