

DVD Number 140

"The Harriet Tubman Underground Railroad Visitor Center: Past, Present, and Future", Presented by Dana Paterra, Manager and Robert Parker, Superintendent of the Harriet Tubman Park, 7 September 2016

Dana is a native of the Eastern Shore with a bachelor's degree in Environment Science. She has 16 years of experience interpreting natural and cultural resources, and 7 years of park operations and management experience. Most recently, she was a park manager near Charleston, SC.

Robert is a 15 year veteran of the National Park Service, having served in various management, education, and interpretation positions. He is a native of North Carolina, with a Bachelor's and Master's degree in history, and is currently working toward his PhD in US History at Howard University.

Join Dana and Robert presented a virtual tour of the recently constructed Harriet Tubman Underground Railroad Visitor Center, including a sneak peak at the exhibit designs that are scheduled to be installed by early spring 2017. We learned about this unique partnership and process as well as what the future holds for this newest tribute to a great American heroine.
