

Our Educational Journey for African Americans in the Early 1900s, Shirley Jackson, 5 October 2011

Shirley S. Jackson, is a retiree from the Eastern Shore Hospital Center 1995. She works as a coordinator for senior programs and activities for Delmarva Community Service, Inc. North Dorchester center in Hurlock. Shirley is a member of the Dorchester County Historical Society, Waugh Chapel UM Church, volunteer-Coastal Hospice, Nanticoke Historic Preservation Alliance, Veteran Recognition Committee, United Methodist Historical Society for the Peninsula Conference-vice chairperson; and The Harriet Tubman/Underground Railroad Conference. Shirley has had the leadership role in planning class reunions for the class of 1954, Maces Lane High School for several years. She also works with the committee for the Charles & Rachel Jackson Descendants' family reunion. She is a mother, mother-in-law and grandmother. She enjoys visiting with family, reading, cooking, gardening, travel and is interested in genealogy, etc.

